

- IDENTIFY THE SUBJECTS, THE DIRECT OBJECTS, THE INDIRECT OBJECTS AND THE PREPOSITIONAL PHRASES IN THE FOLLOWING SENTENCES.

Example: The teacher gave us some work to do.

subject: the teacher / direct object: some work / indirect object: us

1. We sent a package to our relatives.

subject: _____ / direct object: _____ / prepositional phrase: _____

2. He gave his parents so much trouble.

subject: _____ / direct object: _____ / indirect object: _____

3. Please, can you hand me the remote control for the TV?

subject: _____ / direct object: _____ / indirect object: _____

4. Tina is making dinner for us.

subject: _____ / direct object: _____ / prepositional phrase: _____

5. Our boss is buying us dinner.

subject: _____ / direct object: _____ / indirect object: _____

6. A movie on TV gave me the chills.

subject: _____ / direct object: _____ / indirect object: _____

7. I will wish you luck.

subject: _____ / direct object: _____ / indirect object: _____

8. His grandmother sends him five dollars on his birthday every year.

subject: _____ / direct object: _____ / indirect object: _____

9. They tried giving their baby some mashed peas.

subject: _____ / direct object: _____ / indirect object: _____

10. John paid the bill for us.

subject: _____ / direct object: _____ / prepositional phrase: _____