

Declaration of Independence

Magazine 10 Topic 7 The Fight for Freedom

Based on what you read in this Lesson, follow the instructions on every item to answer this worksheet.

I. Fill in the blanks, complete the spaces with the correct word or phrase.

- _____ is reported to have said, "Gentlemen, we must now all hang together, or we shall most assuredly hang separately."
- British soldiers were nicknamed _____, because they wore bright red jackets.
- The Battle of _____ was a turning point. It gave Americans hope that they could beat the British.
- In 1781, an American army accepted the _____ of most British forces in the field.
- On August 2, a final copy was delivered to _____ for signing.
- John Hancock was an early _____ of independence.

II. True or False, write T or F for every proposal.

- _____ The British offered a large reward for the capture of Hancock and other leading rebels.
- _____ On July 18, 1776, the Liberty Bell rang out, calling people to the steps of Independence Hall in Philadelphia.
- _____ The Liberty Bell, installed in 1752, later became a symbol of freedom.
- _____ People fighting slavery in the 1900s used the bell as a symbol for their cause.