

18/10/2021

Topic.....

Date.....

Page No.....

chp 6 - Composition of matter

Fill ups

1. The intermolecular force is _____ in the particles of solid
2. Solids retain their volume even when external pressure is applied. This property is called _____
3. Matter is classified into the types mixture, compound and element by applying the criterion _____
4. Matter that contains two or more constituent substances is called _____
5. Milk is an example of type of matter called _____
6. Water, mercury and bromine are similar to each other because they are _____
7. Matter is classified into three types _____, _____ and _____
8. water is a compound formed by chemical combination of _____ and _____
9. The proportion of constituent elements of oxygen and hydrogen in water by weight is always _____
10. Water is a _____ solvent. It is used to _____ fire
11. Milk is a mixture of water, _____, _____, _____ and a few more natural substances.
12. The proportion of fat in cow milk is _____ while it is _____ in buffalo milk.
13. A homogeneous mixture of two or more substances is called _____
14. Homogeneous mixture of water and salt is called _____
15. Heterogeneous mixture of liquid and a solid is called _____
16. The part of matter having uniform composition is called _____
17. Brass contains atoms of _____ and _____
18. Bronze contains atoms of _____ and _____