

UNIT 3

IMAGINARY CREATURES

Put the sentences describing imaginary creatures in the correct order to make a coherent text.

THE SPHINX

It is a wicked, cruel and evil monster. (1)

The Sphinx is a strange-looking mythological creature which has the face of a woman, the body of a lion and wings of an eagle. (2)

If a person answers incorrectly, it kills them immediately. (3)

It guards the city of Thebes and asks passers-by a riddle : "What is it that has four feet in the morning, two at noon, and three at night?" (4)

LEPRECHAUNS

They are usually portrayed as little bearded men, wearing a green coat and hat, buckled shoes who have a hidden pot of gold at the end of the rainbow. (1)

Leprechauns are naughty and love being mischievous and nasty, so they will definitely try to trick you! (2)

If you find one, capture them and they can grant you three wishes. But be careful! (3)

They are supernatural beings, found in Irish myths and legends. (4)