

1. Watch the video and answer the questions:

What's a fable?

What's a moral?

Who was Aesop?

2. Are these sentences true or false? Correct the incorrect ones.

A fable is a very long story.

There's a moral at the end of a fable.

There are only human characters.

All of the characters make good decisions.

There's often a clever character.

3. What's one of the questions you should ask yourself when you read a fable?

4. What fables do you know?