

1 Circle the vertebrates.

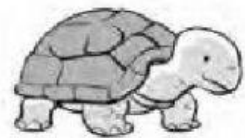

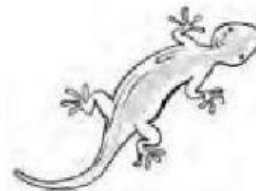

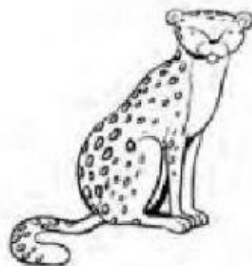

2 What type of animal are they? Write.

reptile

mammal

bird

amphibian

3 Write T (true) or F (false).

Birds are oviparous and have feathers.

Amphibians are viviparous and have bare skin.

Fish and reptiles have scales.

Mammals are viviparous and many have fur.

1 What do all insects have in common? Complete.

All insects have a _____,
_____ and _____.

2 Write three animals in each group.

cows	tigers	pigs	crocodiles
rabbits	deer	foxes	sharks
bears

herbivore

carnivore

omnivore

3 Read and match.

Mammals

- are oviparous. They have scales and they crawl.

Birds

- are oviparous. They live in water and they have fins.

Reptiles

- are born from eggs and they have feathers.

Amphibians

- are viviparous. They drink their mother's milk and they have fur.

Fish

- are oviparous and they have bare skin.