

Present Perfect

Created by TMarianVDL

I. DRAG AND DROP THE PROPS GIVEN BELOW TO COMPLETE THE CONVERSATION

haven't defrosted Have you dusted haven't vacuumed Have you cleaned have cleaned have spoken have swept

A: Hi Carmen, it's me.

B: Oh, hi Jackie. What's up?

A: I just want to know if you _____ to the landlady about our dinner party tonight.

B: Yes, I have, actually.

A: And how is the housework coming along?

B: Well, I _____ the bathroom and the kitchen.

A: _____ the living room?

B: No, not yet. And I _____ the carpet, either. But I _____ the floor!

A: OK. What about your room? _____ it yet?

B: Why? We're having a dinner party - no one needs to see my room! So, what are you making for dinner?

A: Oh, no! I _____ the meat! Can you...

B: Sorry - I don't have the time. I have too much work to do! Bye!

II. READ THE JOB INTERVIEW BELOW AND PUT THE VERBS IN PARENTHESES IN THE SIMPLE PAST OR PRESENT PERFECT

A: So, Ms. Peters, tell me a little about your studies, please.

B: Well, I _____ (just/finish) college, where I studied Archaeology.

A: _____ (you/do) any work in the field?

B: Yes, I _____ (work) as a field assistant on several occasions. I _____ (spend) last summer in Turkey.

A: What _____ (learn) from that experience?

B: Well, it _____ (teach) me how to decide what was important and what wasn't.

A: I see. What area of it are you most interested in?

B: _____ (you/ever/be) to Egypt?

A: Yes, I _____ (be) there twice.

B: Thank you very much, Ms. Peters. I'll get back to you soon.