Adjectives

Adjectives tell how many (number words) and what kind (colour, shape, size, sound, taste, texture, feeling).

A. Underline the adjectives in the sentences below.

1. My best friend and I visited Fish Fry on a cool but busy day of the week.
2. We stopped to a light, blue stall for a large conch salad.
3. Tropical conch salad costs eighteen dollars at many of the stalls.
4. The fruits were ripe and brightly coloured.
5. The tomatoes were round and firm, perfect for salads.
6. We watched eagerly as the friendly, Bahamian vendor prepared our order.
7. Eating a fresh bowl of delicious conch salad makes me so happy.

B. Write what kind or how many on the lines to identify the underlined adjective.

1. During the hottest months, The Bahamas can experience a hurricane. _____
2. Hurricanes can form outside the season if the ocean is warm enough. _____
3. A hurricane is a violent storm with 74 miles per winds _____ or higher.
4. Hurricanes have strong winds and sometimes heavy rain. _____
5. Sea surges can reach more than twenty five feet. _____
6. These storms can result in billions of dollars in damages. _____
7. Many valuables can be lost, but none as valuable as life. _____
8. Meteorologists are kind and retire names of hurricanes that _____ have left mass devastation and death.

Prepared by Shantel S. Paul 2020 Virtual School

LIVEWORKSHEETS