

“Our Dog’s Name is Roomba”

By: Kenn Nesbitt

Our Dog’s Name is Roomba,
he’s such a great pup.
If food hits our carpet,
he vacuums it up.

He’s constantly sniffing for food he can clean.
Our floors are the tidiest you’ve ever seen.
There’s practically nothing this puppy won’t eat.
He’ll munch on the tiniest morsel of meat.

He’ll suck up spaghetti.
He’ll polish off peas.
He’ll chow down on berries,
and cherries and cheese.

He’ll lick up linguini.
He’ll gobble up grapes.
He’ll pig out on pancakes,
and waffles and crepes.

The floor in our kitchen has never been neater.
We’re lucky our puppy is such a good eater.
Our Roomba’s a marvelous morsel remover.
He learned from our other dogs Dyson and Hoover.

Directions: choose the correct answer for each question.

1. Is “Our Dog’s Name is Roomba” is what type of poem?
Narrative
Free verse
Lyrical

2. How many stanzas are in the poem?

Three

Four

Five

Six

3. Which line contain alliteration? (repetition of sound)

He's such a great pup

If food hits our carpet

And cherries and cheese

He vacuums it up

4. What is the tone of the poem?

Serious

Humorous

Joyful

Sad

5. What does the speaker in the poem compare his dog to?

A mop

A broom

A good eater

A vacuum

Created by: Mrs. Melissa Ritz