

1. It seems that he's sleeping.
He _____.
2. It seems that Michael has been meaning to ask Rachel out for many years.
Michael _____ to ask Rachel out for many years.
3. It seems that he is not listening to me.
He _____ to me.
4. It appears that she has been changing jobs every few months in the last few years.
She _____ jobs every few months in the last few years.
5. It seems that you are excited. What has happened?
You _____ excited. What has happened?
6. It appears that they are married.
They _____ married.
7. It seems that Sandra has been dreaming of no one else but John since their first meeting.
Sandra _____ of no one else but John since their first meeting.
8. It appears that he has been spending a lot of time meditating.
He _____ a lot of time meditating.
9. It seems that Megan has not lost her weight.
Megan _____ her weight.
10. It appears that the house has been damaged by the earthquake.
The house _____ damaged by the earthquake.
11. It seems that they work here.
They _____ here.
12. It seems that she has missed her bus.
She _____ her bus.
13. It appears that Mary is leaving.
Mary _____.
14. It seems that her mood has changed for the worse.
Her mood _____ for the worse.
15. It appears that she is happy.
She _____ happy.
16. It appears that he is finishing it.
He _____ it.

THE SUBJECTIVE INFINITIVE CONSTRUCTION
ACTIVE VOICE
TO SEEM, TO APPEAR