

Activity 12. SIMPLE PAST TENSE WITH IRREGULAR VERBS

We can also express actions in the past with irregular verbs. Irregular verbs are usually different in base form and past form. In affirmative sentences, use the past form of irregular verbs. In negative sentences or questions, verbs stay in base form.

También podemos expresar acciones en pasado con verbos irregulares. Los verbos irregulares usualmente son diferentes en su forma base y su forma en pasado. En oraciones afirmativas en pasado, usa la forma en pasado del verbo irregular. En oraciones negativas y preguntas, los verbos se mantienen en forma base

A. Write the irregular verb in the past form.

(Escribe el verbo irregular en pasado.)

1. I drew a beautiful horse. (draw)
2. Mary _____ the blue car. (drive)
3. We _____ an interesting book in school. (read)*
*Es igual en base y pasado
4. The cat _____ on the sofa. (sleep)
5. She _____ a letter to her grandmother. (write)
6. We _____ karaoke at the party. (sing)

B. Change the affirmative sentence to negative sentences. Remember to add -didn't- and return the verb to its base form.

(Cambia la oración afirmativa a negativa. Recuerda agregar -didn't- y regresar el verbo a su forma base.)

1. My teacher wrote an email to my parents. My teacher didn't write an email to my parents.
2. I gave my mother flowers for Mother's day. _____.
3. We ate cereal for breakfast. _____.
4. They drank apple juice. _____.
5. I saw my friends at the party. _____.
6. Carlos did the English homework. _____.

C. Complete the past tense questions with Did/did/didn't.

(Completa las oraciones en pasado)

1. A: Did you run in the marathon? B: Yes, I _____.
2. A: _____ they go on vacation? B: No, they _____.
3. A: _____ the teacher drink coffee? B: Yes, she _____.
4. A: _____ the children eat pizza? B: No, they _____.
5. A: _____ Jorge buy a computer? B: Yes, he _____.