

Complete the following texts using MODALS

MUST

HAVE TO

DON'T HAVE TO

CAN

MUSTN'T

CAN'T

EUKONKANTO

In the contest, a man _____ carry the woman through a special obstacle track in the fastest time. The sport is celebrated in Sonkajärvi, Finland. Different types of carry _____ be used: piggyback, fireman's carry (over the shoulder), or Estonian-style (the wife hangs upside-down with her legs around the husband's shoulders, holding onto his waist). The wife you carry _____ be your own, or your neighbor's, or any other woman you agree before. You _____ complete the 253-meter-long track. The woman _____ weigh a minimum of 49 kg; if she is under 49kg, she _____ carry a backpack with additional weights.

NATHAN'S HOT DOG EATING CONTEST

This is a tradition of Independence Day (July 4th) in New York City. Contestants _____ eat as many hot dogs as they _____ in ten minutes. They _____ stand behind a large table in which hot dogs (together with buns) are served. Condiments are on the table, but they _____ use them. Water is provided to each contestant, but they _____ drink any other drinks. The winner _____ swallow all the hot dogs, and keep them down. They _____ throw up or regurgitate them, or they are disqualified.

SLAP OFF CONTEST KO

Contestants _____ slap each other taking turns. Before the match, contestants _____ play rock, paper, scissors and the winner of the game _____ slap first. You _____ put your hands in the way and you _____ duck to avoid the hit, or you get disqualified. The winner of the competition is the one who stayed last on his foot!

Now, work in groups.

You are going to create your own competition. Decide the name of the contest, the objective and the rules of the competition. Compare with other groups. Which sounds the most interesting?