

'Make' or 'do'?

1. We usually make meals, drinks etc, but do things around the house. Based on this information, try to decide whether we make or do these things:

- a) _____ the dinner
- b) _____ the housework
- c) _____ the dusting
- d) _____ the gardening
- e) _____ a drink
- f) _____ a sandwich

2. But there are no definite rules. Try to do the same here:

- a) _____ a decision
- b) _____ your homework
- c) _____ the tidying
- d) _____ an appointment
- e) _____ your hair
- f) _____ some exercise
- g) _____ a mistake
- h) _____ your best

3. Your friend is complaining about her problems. Match her problems with the advice you give her.

Example: My room's a mess!

You should do some tidying!

a) I'm in trouble with my teacher.

Try to make a decision

b) I'm so thirsty!

You should do more exercise!

c) I don't like the way I look!

Why don't you make a drink!

d) This worksheet's too difficult!

Make a dental appointment!

e) I just don't know which to choose!

You ought to do your homework!

f) My tooth hurts!

You should do your hair

g) I'm getting fat!

Just do your best!
