Interesting, disgusting, funny, bad, good, boring

Now you are going to write a book review. Follow these steps:

TIP

When writing a book review, we usually use the present tenses (the main character is a boy. When the family is traveling to the coast, the children play with their cousins.) to write about the plot. We also use adjectives – descriptive words – to talk about the scenery and background. The boy was very timid, thin and weak.
