

A.

When you arrive at an airport, the will show you
the (e.g. BA735),
departure times (e.g. 08.40), and

At ,
someone will check your ticket and your luggage. If it is more than, for example, 20 kilograms, you will have to

. You can take your hand luggage with you on the
. You also get your
and then you can go through , passenger trolley luggage suitcase

where someone

and into the departure

fastening a seatbelt

hand luggage

lounge, where you can buy things in the shop, e.g.

cigarettes and perfume.

Shortly before , you go to the place where you get on the plane, e.g. 3 or 5 . When you , you can put your hand luggage in a small cupboard above your seat called an .

You then have to . If there are no , the plane moves slowly to the , then it takes off.

when you leave a place, at the start of a journey where the flights are going to see how heavy something is pay extra for your luggage

plane

a piece of paper you must show to get on the plane looks at your passport carefully when the plane takes off /leaves the ground get on the plane

when you have to wait longer than expected the large road that planes use for take-offs and landings

take-off

boarding card

departure

delays

aircraft

destinations

excess baggage

board the plane

runway

weigh

check your passport

Common mistakes

My flight number is BA640. (NOT My fly number is BA640.) I slept the whole flight. (NOT I slept the whole fly.)

B.

When the plane , there is always an from a member of the telling passengers to wait until the plane completely stops before they stand up. Then you get off the plane and walk through the to passport control. When you've got your luggage from , you and leave the airport.

when someone or something arrives arrives on the ground

the airport building

spoken information to a group of people the place where you collect your luggage the people on the aircraft who look after go through the area where your luggage may be the passengers checked to make sure you don't have anything illegal.

baggage reclaim

announcement

lands

go through customs

cabin crew

arrival

terminal building