

Using the clues, unscramble the words to learn some of the keywords about medical care for disease prevention.

This word means to test people to see if they have the early signs of a disease or illness:

eeingnracs

This is something that is injected into a person to protect them from a disease:

ecacvin

This is when people are made immune or resistant to an infectious disease:

noitasinuimm

This word means to identify a disease or illness in someone:

nosedgai