

Choose the correct answer

1. Which city did the virus come from?
Beijing                      Wuhan                      Shanghai
2. When was the corona virus family first identified?
in the 1960s                      in the 1980s                      in 2019
3. What does “zoonotic disease” mean?
conditions that can be passed from animals to humans
conditions that can be passed from humans to animals
conditions that can be passed from humans to humans
4. Where did the virus first start?
in a vegetable market in China
in the seafood wholesale market in Wuhan
in a pet shop in China
5. What are the main symptoms?
dry cough, mild fever, and breathing issues
wet cough, mild fever, and breathing issues
dry cough, high fever, and breathing issues
6. What part of the body does the virus affect?
Stomach                      Heart                      Lungs
7. Who is more at risk of Coronavirus?
The youth                      Older people                      Babies