Vision 2021, the UAE's national agenda, puts 1. (on, in, over) place plans and strategies for the success of the country. One particularly 2. (key, open, lock) element that is focused on is entrepreneurship; this shows the 3. (competition, celebration, commitment) of the leaders to supporting entrepreneurship amongst 4. (its, them, his) citizens. For any economy, having a variety of businesses encourages competition and productivity and generates 5. (wealth, wealthy, wealths) which in turn contributes to the overall efficiency and health of the economy.

There are a 6. (many, much, number) of challenges to encouraging entrepreneurship here. Many Emiratis prefer to work 7. (on, in, under) the public sector. Government jobs are perceived as being more secure, and they offer a good salary and 8. (benefits, beneficial, benefactor). Public sector jobs are a good fit 9. (whereas, while, with) the family and the wider community, and the working environment is culturally familiar. Other challenges include the lack of funds to set up the business and an unwillingness to take a risk – after all, the business 10. (might, will, must) not be a success.
