5 Reading English Sunday dinner

A Read about some traditional food from England. What is it? Check your answer with a classmate.

My name is Sarah. I'm from a town called Oxford, in England. Many English people eat Sunday dinner with their families. We usually make beef or chicken with potatoes and vegetables.

Today I'm making chicken with potatoes. I usually buy one chicken and a lot of potatoes. My family loves potatoes! I roast the chicken. I boil the potatoes, then I roast them, too. It's not expensive to make. It's about £20 for five people.

Sometimes people go to a restaurant for Sunday dinner. There's a good restaurant in Oxford, but the Sunday dinner there is £20 per person! We prefer to cook at home.

B Answer the questions. Circle T (true) or F (false).

1. To make Sunday dinner, you fry chicken. T F
2. Sarah's family loves potatoes. T F
3. Sunday dinner is very expensive to make. T F
4. Sarah often eats meat on Sundays. T F
5. People never go to a restaurant for Sunday dinner. T F
