

Episode 2

Suter meets with Walsh and persuades him to change some football _____. Stokes, a team member, goes to Kinnaird's _____ to ask for a loan. Some Darwen mill _____ talk about strike as a result of a prior 5 per cent _____ cut. The Cotton Guild imposes another 10 per cent wage cut. Darwen workers walk out. The team refuses to _____ or play in matches while on _____. Suter fails to _____ Walsh to go against the guild. Workers go to the guild to _____ a 5 per cent wage cut and fewer _____ to help fight the oversupply that has caused the price of goods to _____. The guild refuses. Workers _____. Kinnaird is saved from the riot by Stokes. Against Kinnaird's wishes, Stokes goes in his place to warn Colonel Jackson (the guild leader) that the _____ is coming for him. Police show up and arrest Stokes and _____ his dog. Stokes is put on _____ and sentenced to 15 years in prison. Kinnaird testifies on behalf of Stokes and saves him from _____ and gives him his loan. Walsh agrees to the 5 per cent wage cut and to work _____ days a week if the team plays their _____ match. While waiting on the team at the match, Suter is approached by the _____ of Blackburn FC and is offered £100 upfront and a £6 weekly wage _____. Suter turns him down as the team arrive to _____.

Word Bank :

bank	_____
demand (v)	_____
fall (v)	_____
five	_____
hours	_____
increase	_____
kill (v)	_____
manager	_____
mob	_____
persuade (v)	_____
play (v)	_____
prison	_____
riot (v)	_____
strategies	_____
strike	_____
train (v)	_____
trial	_____
upcoming	_____
wage	_____
workers	_____