

ADVERBS OF CERTAINTY

Review exercise 2

Choose the correct adverb of certainty in English

Choose the adverb of certainty between brackets that fits the sentence best.

She wanted to visit you, but couldn't. (obviously / possibly)

We felt we'd hear from him again. (truly / likely) his mother couldn't bring him to school. (Definitely / Maybe)

I must come home tonight. (probably / certainly)

He was not invited. (undoubtedly / probably)

I will join tonight. (Perhaps / Doubtless)