

PHOTOSYNTHESIS

Complete the sentences:

- Photosynthesis is the production of glucose using _____ energy.
- Photosynthesis takes place in the _____ of the cell.
- The green pigment inside _____ is called _____.
- Chlorophyll can convert light energy to _____ energy.

Read and write True or False. Correct the false sentences

- Plants get light from the Sun.
- Some plants can survive without water.
- Plants take in oxygen to make their own food.
- Roots absorb mineral salts from the air.
- Most plants can grow in poor soil.
- Plants take in substances from the soil and air.
- Plants make their own food using sunlight.
- The mixture of water and mineral salts is called stomata.