

How The Camel Got His Hump

ACTIVITIES

- Match the word to its meaning

- | | |
|-------------|---|
| 1. stubborn | a. Green area with water in the desert. |
| 2. oasis | b. To accept or allow |
| 3. genie | c. Not willing to work, idleness |
| 4. tolerate | d. Not willing to change; hard to deal with |
| 5. laziness | e. A magical creature who grants wishes |

- Chose the answer (A B C D) for the underlined words that have a similar meaning to words from "How the Camel Got His Hump."

Stubborn

"Once upon a time there was a stubborn Camel, who lived alone in the desert, eating sticks and twigs and prickly cactus."

- A. hungry B. pretty C. magic D. difficult character

Oasis

"They decided to travel down to the oasis to find the magical spirit who was in charge of All Deserts."

- A. watering hole B. town C. mountain D. cave

Genie

"They called him the Jinn, or genie."

- A. farmer B. sheriff C. magical creature D. mailman

Tolerate

"The three animals asked for his help—the Jinn would never tolerate laziness in his deserts, especially from the Humph-thing."

- A. accept B. punish C. laugh at D. eat

Laziness

"Stubborn Camel," said the Jinn, "What is this I hear of your laziness? You must go work for Man with the other animals."

- A. hunger B. unwillingness to work C. cheerfulness D. fishing

