Naming Part

A sentence has a naming part. It tells who or what the sentence is about.

The happy lion is running very fast.

Who is running very fast? _____

The giraffes smile at the children.

Who smiles at the children? _____

Action Part

A sentence has an action part. It tells what it's happening. It tells who or what does something.

The happy lion is running very fast.

What is the lion doing? _____

The giraffes smile at the children.

What do the giraffes do?_____

Naming and Action Parts

The beautiful girl is studying.

Who is studying? _____

What is the girl doing? _____

The English book is on the table.

What is on the table? _____