

Animated Films Are for Everyone!

1. you often (watch) animated films on TV or at the cinema? I'm 16 years old, and I still 2. (love) this type of film. Maybe you 3. (laugh) at me right now. That's OK. Many people 4. (not understand) animated films. But these films have often got extremely important messages. Beauty and the Beast is an excellent example. The main character of the film is a clever, independent girl called Belle. The plot 5. (begin) with Belle looking for her missing father. She 6. (find) him in prison in the castle of a monster. The monster 7. (put) Belle in prison instead of her father. The monster is actually a prince, but Belle 8. (not know) that. What 9. she (do) next? Sorry, I can't tell you that. But I'm sure you 10. (look for) the film right now!
