Schoolboy to climb Mount Everest

Danny Sway is a student at the County School in Derby. But by next summer, Danny

¹will have left / will be leaving Derby far behind him. He won't be meeting his friends in town next summer either – he'll be sleeping in a tent 5,000 metres up Mount Everest! By then, he ²will have got / will get used to the freezing temperatures and high altitude, and his team ³waits / will be waiting for the right time to continue climbing up the mountain. If everything goes well, Danny and five friends will then try to reach the top of Mount Everest.

Danny told us, 'A lot depends on the weather on Everest. We ⁴may / will need to wait for weeks before we can climb to the top, or we could begin climbing in July. We just don't know. But ⁵I doubt / I'm fairly sure that by the end of August we will have reached the top – or failed.'

One thing is certain: everyone in Derby will be reading about his trip every day.
