

EXPERT TIPS: HOW TO TAKE BETTER PHOTOS

Choose the correct answer.

Photographing wild animals isn't _____ because they are _____. You need to be very _____. Find a _____ place to sit - you may be there for a long time. Wait _____ so the animals don't hear you.

Remember, it's _____ to take photos of people you don't know. Smile and talk to people before you take out your camera. Most people will _____ say yes if you ask _____ for permission.

When people are doing sports, they don't move _____, so choose _____ where you stand. For dangerous sports, the photographer needs to be _____ and good at the sport, too.

It's difficult to take _____ holiday photos because they often look the same. Think _____ and choose unusual angles.

Drag the phrases to the pictures.

Slow

fast

polite

brave

comfortable

easy

happy

A _____ chair

A _____ train

An _____ maths question

A _____ dog

A _____ creature

_____ men

A _____ woman

Join the adjective to the definition with arrows.

Careful

happy to wait

Creative

not loud

Good

having good ideas

Patient

not polite

Quiet

with care and attention

Rude

of good quality