Title: Intropy Public Schools works to break down the educational barriers for low-socioeconomic students in the Science, uncopy, Engineering and Math (STEM) fields. Its project-based learning method and STEM SOS model requires students implies mutiple hands-on projects per year in desect fields, then present their fludings to the community. This motivable mutications (4) y Harmony campus passed or exceeded the state's academic standards in 2016, with six of its campuses earning all in available academic offsettions and work of its districts earning the post-socional yearning statematics. The same statematics offsettion and work of its districts earning the post-socionally readmes distriction. All the Texas Education Agency (TEA) rated 21 of the 33 Harmony schools as Exemplary' or "Recognized", while the same exceptions, including The Dealles Montage Nation. Assistance and the West Interest Parameter (Interest Parameter) and a "Silver' Medal in 2010 [9][10] A Newsweek report in 2011 named two of the Harmony Schools "Miracle Schools".	First Name:		Last Name:		Date:
Title: mony Public Schools works to break down the educational barriers for low-socioeconomic students in the Science, mology, Engineering and Math (STEM) fields. Its project-based learning method and STEM SOS model requires students in the science, mology, Engineering and Math (STEM) fields. Its project-based learning method and STEM SOS model requires students in the community. This motivates entitle to entit the community. This motivates entitle complex academic concepts and gives them practice at Itlellong skills, such as public speaking and munications. [4] y Harmony campus passed or exceeded the state's academic standards in 2016, with six of its campuses earning all in available academic distinctions and two of its districts earning the post-secondary readiness distinction. 1 the Texas Education Agency (TEA) rated 21 of the 33 Harmony schools as "Exemplary" or "Recognized", while the sinder were "Acceptable", [5] is newspapers, including The Dallas Moming News, the Austin American-Statesman, and the West University Examiner, mented favorably on the schools [6][7][8] HSA Houston was awarded by U.S. News & World Report a "Bronze" medal in		7000		n-de-		No.
nony Public Schools works to break down the educational barriers for low-socioeconomic students in the Science, nology, Engineering and Math (STEM) fields. Its project-based learning method and STEM SOS model requires students simplete multiple hands-on projects per year in select fields, then present their findings to the community. This motivates ents to master complex academic concepts and gives them practice at lifelong skills, such as public speaking and munications. [4] by Harmony campus passed or exceeded the state's academic standards in 2016, with six of its campuses earning all in available academic distinctions and two of its districts earning the post-secondary readiness distinction. If the Texas Education Agency (TEA) rated 21 of the 33 Harmony schools as "Exemplary" or "Recognized", while the ainder were "Acceptable". [5] is newspapers, including The Dallas Moming News, the Austin American-Statesman, and the West University Examiner, mented favorably on the schools [6][7][8] HSA Houston was awarded by U.S. News & World Report a 'Bronze' medal in	Writing Pr	rompt:
nony Public Schools works to break down the educational barriers for low-socioeconomic students in the Science, nology, Engineering and Math (STEM) fields. Its project-based learning method and STEM SOS model requires students simplete multiple hands-on projects per year in select fields, then present their findings to the community. This motivates ents to master complex academic concepts and gives them practice at lifelong skills, such as public speaking and munications. [4] by Harmony campus passed or exceeded the state's academic standards in 2016, with six of its campuses earning all in available academic distinctions and two of its districts earning the post-secondary readiness distinction. If the Texas Education Agency (TEA) rated 21 of the 33 Harmony schools as "Exemplary" or "Recognized", while the ainder were "Acceptable". [5] is newspapers, including The Dallas Moming News, the Austin American-Statesman, and the West University Examiner, mented favorably on the schools [6][7][8] HSA Houston was awarded by U.S. News & World Report a 'Bronze' medal in		Title nnology, Engineering and Math (STEM) fields. Its project-based learning method and STEM SOS model requires students somplete multiple hands-on projects per year in select fields, then present their findings to the community. This motivates ents to master complex academic concepts and gives them practice at lifelong skills, such as public speaking and munications.[4] y Harmony campus passed or exceeded the state's academic standards in 2016, with six of its campuses earning all in available academic distinctions and two of its districts earning the post-secondary readiness distinction. Did the Texas Education Agency (TEA) rated 21 of the 33 Harmony schools as "Exemplary" or "Recognized", while the sinder were "Acceptable".[5] is newspapers, including The Dallas Morning News, the Austin American-Statesman, and the West University Examiner, mented favorably on the schools [6][7][8] HSA Houston was awarded by U.S. News & World Report a "Bronze" medal in cchnology, E complete mudents to ma immunication very Harmon even available 2011 the Ter mainder wer exas newspa immented far	ngineering and Math uitiple hands-on projisster complex acader ins.[4] y campus passed or e academic distinction in academic distinction e "Acceptable".[5] per including The I vorably on the school	n (STEM) fields. Its project ects per year in select fiel mic concepts and gives the exceeded the state's aca ons and two of its districts cy (TEA) rated 21 of the 3 Dallas Moming News, the sts.[6][7][8] HSA Houston	-based learning method and 5 ds, then present their findings em practice at lifelong skills, s demic standards in 2016, with earning the post-secondary re 3 Harmony schools as "Exem Austin American-Statesman, was awarded by U.S. News &	STEM SOS model re to the community. T such as public speak six of its campuses eadiness distinction. plary" or "Recognize and the West Unive World Report a Bro	earning all ed", while the rsity Examiner, nze' medal in	Example of a 187 word es I suggest telling students 9	say so you can see length. say need to write to at least line 15-20*