

A Choose the correct indefinite pronouns. Then ask and answer the questions in pairs.

- 1 Have you ever eaten nothing / anything unusual on holiday?
- 2 If you could go on an expedition anywhere / somewhere in the whole world, where would you go?
- 3 Do you know anyone / no one who works in the travel industry?
- 4 If you could change something / nothing about your hometown, what would it be?
- 5 Do you enjoy spending holidays lying on a beach doing anything / nothing?
- 6 Would you rather go abroad on holiday or anywhere / somewhere in your country?
- 7 If you crashed your car into a parked car and anybody / nobody saw, what would you do?

B Complete the two dialogues with indefinite pronouns.

Jade Hi, Carl. ¹_____ told me you were on holiday last week. Did you go away ²_____?

Carl Yeah, but ³_____ exciting. We went to this tiny village in Wales that ⁴_____ has ever heard of.

Jade Oh, right. How come you went there?

Carl Dad had read ⁵_____ about it in a travel magazine and thought it sounded interesting.

Jade And was it?

Carl No, it was dead boring. There was ⁶_____ to see or do and the weather was dreadful.

Jade Shame. Hopefully you'll get to go ⁷_____ better on your next holiday.

Linda You look annoyed, Sharon. Is ⁸_____ wrong?

Sharon ⁹_____ crashed into the back of my car on my way home last night and then drove off without stopping.

Linda That's terrible. Did ¹⁰_____ see it happen?

Sharon No, it was late and there was ¹¹_____ around.

Linda Did you report it to the police?

Sharon Yes, although I had almost ¹²_____ to tell them. I didn't get the licence plate number and the driver could have been ¹³_____!

Linda Come on, let's go to the café. I'll buy you ¹⁴_____ nice to cheer you up!