

Read the story and choose a word on the pictures below to fill the gaps.

Yesterday was my birthday and my parents gave me some new paints as a present.

They know I love making pictures. I _____ the paints on the school bus and used them to make a picture for my _____, Mr. Hall. I used nearly all the colours and did a picture of some _____ in the jungle because they are his favourite birds.

At school, Mr. Hall was inside our classroom. 'Good morning, Mr. Hall', I said. 'I have something for you!'

Mr. Hall looked at me. 'Oh no! Are you sick, Peter?' he asked.

'No, I am fine. Why did you ask me that?' I answered.

'You look terrible. Your face is red. I think you have got a _____', said Mr. Hall.

'Ha ha. This is paint! I did a picture for you this morning', I said.

Mr. Hall _____ 'That is very funny', he said. 'Lots of children are sick today.

I am happy to learn that you are not.'

