

MAMMALS	BIRDS	FISH

REPTILES	AMPHIBIANS

- Breathe through gills when they are tadpoles and with lungs and skin when they are adults.
- They have bare skin.
- They are oviparous
- They have 4 legs and can be terrestrial and aquatic.

- Breathe through lungs.
- Skin covered with hair.
- They are viviparous.
- Most of them have 4 legs and are terrestrial.

- Breathe through gills.
- Skin covered with scales.
- They are aquatic oviparous.
- They move using fins and a tail.

- Breathe through lungs.
- Skin covered with feathers.
- Oviparous.
- They have got a beak
- They walk with their 2 legs and fly with their wings

- Breathe through lungs.
- Skin covered with scales
- They are oviparous.
- Most of them have 4 legs and are terrestrial.