

Future simple active and future simple passive

5 Circle the correct option.

Next June a computer competition will hold/will be held in my school. The pupils who are best at computers from all the schools in our town will take/will be taken part. All competitors will ask/will be asked to make a programme that will use/will be used in our 'Save our planet' project. They will give/will be given laptops and everything else they need. The competition will last/will be lasted for two days. Different sporting events and concerts will organise/will be organised, too. All the programmes will judge/will be judged by a team of three expert teachers. They will grade/will be graded according to how effective they are. The winners will award/will be awarded a prize. The results will announce/will be announced on Sunday afternoon. Everyone will invite/will be invited to a party in the evening.

Present continuous, going to future and future simple

6 Complete the sentences with the present continuous, going to future or the future simple form of the verbs in brackets.

- 1 Sean _____ (be) fourteen next Saturday. He _____ (throw) a party. He has invited us all. We _____ (meet) in front of the school. We _____ (take) the number 23 bus to his house. I hope it _____ (rain).
- 2 A: _____ you _____ (come) over to my place on Saturday?
B: Sorry, I can't. I _____ (study) chemistry with Stella.
A: _____ you _____ (study) all afternoon?
B: Probably. _____ you _____ (join) us? Please do.
A: OK. I _____ (come).
- 3 Study hard or you _____ (neg. pass) the test. There isn't much time left. We _____ (do) the test on Wednesday. Alan is still ill. So he _____ (neg. come).
The teacher _____ (make) the test very hard. She decided that a while ago and told us last time.