

Look at the picture and answer the question using the verb given. The answer always begins with the expression: I'm afraid it Be careful: the tense in your answer should be the same as that in the question.

What happened to the train?

I'm afraid it _____.

(cancel)

What has happened to your car?

I'm afraid it _____.

(steal)

What's going to happen to the old town hall?

I'm afraid it _____.

(demolish)

What happened to our house?

I'm afraid it _____.

(burgle)

What do you think will happen to the airport if the holiday trade increase?

I'm afraid it _____.

(enlarge)

What is happening to the traffic during the procession?

I'm afraid it _____.

(divert)

What has happened to the sign?

I'm afraid it _____.

(knock down)

What happens to the waste paper?

I'm afraid it _____.

(throw away)

What has happened to our hotel?

I'm afraid it _____ yet.

(not build)

What is happening to to my wife?

I'm afraid she _____.

(interview)