

Repetition grammar.

A noun is a thing, place or person.

A verb is a «to do» word, something that expresses action.

An adjective is a word that describes the noun.

NOUNS

One cat	-	two
One house	-	five
One fox	-	three
One child	-	three
One man	-	two
One woman	-	many

A OR AN?

Apple
Book
Box
Orange bus
Shop
Onion
Universe
Green apple
Oval circle

VERBS

DO OR DOES?

He the dishes every day.
They their homework.
I my homework every day.
She her chores every Friday.
You your homework very well.

You like chocolate?
She play the piano?
I look nice in this outfit?
They like the music?
He walk to school?

ADJECTIVES

What word in the sentences is an adjective?

It is a green alien.

She is an angry witch.

I can see a scary monster

I can make a delicious cake.

Put in the right form of the adjectives in the sentences.

Denne katten er liten. Fuglen er mindre enn katten. Fluen er den minste av de tre.

This cat is small. The bird is than the cat. The fly is of the three.

Ringen er pen. Smykket er penere, men kronen er den peneste.

The ring is pretty. The necklace is , but the crown is En flodhest er farlig. En tiger er farligere. En krokodille er den farligste.

A hippo is dangerous. A tiger is . A crocodile is

Put in the right form of the adjective

Positiv	Komparativ	Superlativ
High
	Happier
		The most delicious
	Longer
		The prettiest