

Grammar

- 1 Complete the email with the present simple or present continuous form of the verb in brackets. Use short forms.

Hi Minnie,

I'm in London now, and I (1) . . . . . (have) a great time! I'm here with my parents and my brother.

I (2) . . . . . (try) to practise my English at the moment, but I (3) . . . . . (not always understand) what people are saying because they (4) . . . . . (usually speak) very quickly.

At the moment, we're in the hotel. We (5) . . . . . (have) a rest. My dad (6) . . . . . (be) on the bed.

He (7) . . . . . (read) some information about a museum. My mum (8) . . . . . (put) on a new jacket she bought in Oxford Street. My brother (9) . . . . . (listen) to music. He says he really (10) . . . . . (like) the radio stations here in London because they (11) . . . . . (often play) really good songs.

I really (12) . . . . . (like) it here. I'll write again soon.

Sara

- 2 Complete the sentences with too or enough and an adjective from the box.

big    clean    dark    difficult    expensive    fast    old    small

- These trainers are . . . . . I don't have enough money to buy them.
- I don't want to walk to the supermarket. It's not . . . . . Let's use the car. We can be at the supermarket in five minutes.
- I like this T-shirt, but it's . . . . . Do you have a small one?
- I can't do this homework. It's . . . . . I don't understand it.
- You're only 13. You're not . . . . . to drive a car.
- I can't put all these things into the box. It's . . . . . I need a big box.
- It's . . . . . in here. I can't see. Please open the curtains.
- Wash these glasses again, please. They're not . . . . .

Pronunciation

UT4

Listen and complete the words you hear. Then choose the sound of the missing letters.

There is one space for each letter.

- th_se    /t/    /i:/
- s_ster    /t/    /i:/
- expens_ve    /t/    /i:/
- ch__p    /t/    /i:/
- b_g    /t/    /i:/
- cl__n    /t/    /i:/
- _shirt    /t/    /i:/
- th_s    /t/    /i:/