

Type the missing letters to complete the paragraph below

A cheetah's spots cover nearly its entire body and may s e as camouflage by offsetting s h a in the gray-hued grasses they i n h. Camouflage is not only e s s e for stalking p r but also for p r o t e cheetah cubs from p r e d. Did you know? Much like a human f i n g e, a cheetah's spots and the ring pattern of its tail are unique!

Type the missing letters to complete the paragraph below

The saguaro cactus is one of the defining plants of the Sonoran Desert. These p l a are large, tree-like columnar cacti that d e v branches, also k n as arms, as they a, although some n e grow arms. These arms g e n e bend upward and can n u m over 25. Saguaros are covered with p r o t e spines, white f l o in the late spring, and red fruit in s u m. Saguaros are found exclusively in the Sonoran Desert.

Type the missing letters to complete the paragraph below

Karl Heinrich Marx was a German political thinker who wrote about economics and p o l i. Marx t h o that if a p l that works t o g e runs on wage-labor, then there would always be class s t r u. Marx thought that this c l struggle would result in w o r taking power. He b e l i that no e c o n class should have p o over another. Marx believed that e v e r should c o n t r what they can, and e v e r should get what they n e. His most f a m book was the Communist Manifesto.

Type the missing letters to complete the paragraph below

Space travel has become much safer as scientists have overcome potential problems, but it's still dangerous. It's a l very e x p e. In order for a s p shuttle to b r free of Earth's g r a, it has to t r a at a s p of 15,000 miles per hour. Space s h u t need 1.9 million liters of f u just to l a u into space. That's e n o fuel to f i up 42,000 cars! Combine the h i speed, heat and fuel needed for launching and you've got a very potentially dangerous situation.