

PAPER 1 Reading and
Use of English

PAPER 2 Writing

PAPER 3 Listening

PAPER 4 Speaking

Part 1
Part 2
Part 3
Part 4

 Track 22

You will hear a talk by a man called Graham Jones, who designs model railways in Britain. For questions 9–18, complete the sentences with a word or short phrase.

Model railways

In the 1980s and 1990s, models were considered to be

(9)

Britain is the (10) railway model market in Europe.

For parents, model railways are a (10) alternative to computers and videogames.

Most people who buy model railway equipment nowadays are (11)

Purchasers of model trains include lawyers, business executives and (12)

Children will always be interested in toy models of (13) objects.

Model railways will continue to appeal mainly to (14)

Companies that make model railways are now investing in countries in (15)

Manufacturers will be promoting their products at international

(16)

Model trains are available that are (17)

by computers.

Reading and
Use of English

Writing

Listening

Speaking

Part 1
Part 2
Part 3
Part 4

 Track 23

You will hear five short extracts in which people are talking about their memories of their first day at school. For questions 19–23, choose from the list (A–H) what each speaker remembers about the experience. Use the letters only once. There are three extra letters which you do not need to use.

A I was late for the first class.

B The building seemed very big.

Speaker 1

19

C A relative of mine was already there.

Speaker 2

20

D I felt very lonely.

Speaker 3

21

E I was glad there wasn't a uniform.

Speaker 4

22

F I wasn't wearing the right clothes.

Speaker 5

23

G I had to walk to school alone.

H I had a positive feeling from the very start.

Track 24

You will hear part of a radio interview with a law student called Mark Stone, talking about his life at university. For questions 24–30, choose the best answer (A, B or C).

- 24 Why did Mark decide to study at Gramwell University?
- A It offers a very good course in his subject.
 - B His parents advised him to go there.
 - C It is near where he grew up.
- 25 When Mark arrived at Gramwell, he was surprised by
- A the weather.
 - B the architecture.
 - C the atmosphere.
- 26 What does Mark say about his studies?
- A It is difficult to manage his time well.
 - B It is less demanding now than it used to be.
 - C It is worth studying hard.
- 27 Why did Mark get a part-time job?
- A He wanted experience working as a librarian.
 - B He had to cover the cost of his accommodation.
 - C He was getting bored in his spare time.
- 28 What does Mark say about his lecturers?
- A They like to communicate with students.
 - B They are hard to get to know.
 - C They only occasionally want to see students.
- 29 What does Mark say about his friends at Gramwell?
- A Most people he knows study law.
 - B They study a variety of different subjects.
 - C The subjects they study are more interesting than law.
- 30 How does Mark feel about his social life?
- A He wishes he could go to more parties.
 - B He worries about wasting time.
 - C He believes he studies better after doing sport.