

SHADOW

Shadow the Hedgehog is a character from Sega's Sonic the Hedgehog video game series. He is an artificially created black and red hedgehog whose floating slippers propel him to extreme speeds that rival Sonic's. He can also use the Chaos Emeralds to manipulate time and space through a technique called "Chaos Control." The character first appeared in Sonic Adventure 2, where he was depicted as a villain and then an anti-hero, suffering from a tragic past; Occasionally, he becomes an ally of Sonic and his friends, but remains at odds with them due to his different morality.

Styled as Sonic's arch-rival, Shadow has appeared in a variety of games in the Sonic series, including a game of the same name, which received generally unfavorable reviews. The character's reception has been lukewarm, though he was ranked the franchise's second most popular character (after Sonic himself) in an official poll.
