

CANADA

1 Famous people - Terry Fox

Go to <https://www.britannica.com/biography/Terry-Fox> and complete.

Terry Fox (born _____ 28, 1958 - _____ June 28, _____) was a Canadian _____ who became a national _____ and an inspirational figure for his _____ against _____ .

In 1977, Terry was _____ with cancer. The disease's progression led to the _____ of one of his _____ above the _____ .

Fox soon _____ to run using an _____ leg, and by 1979 he was able to complete a _____ (26.2 miles [42 km]). A few months later he decided to _____ Canada in order to _____ for cancer _____. His run, which he called the _____ of _____ , began on April 12, 1980. Initially Fox did not receive much _____ or _____ , but that changed as he continued to run, _____ up to 30 miles (_____ km) per day.

On September 1, 1980, _____ forced him to stop. It was soon _____ that the cancer had _____ to his _____ .

In early 1981 the Marathon of Hope _____ Fox's _____ of $24 million in _____. He was _____ twice named Canadian of the Year.

