

UNDERGROUND ALLIEN CITY

exhausted silent tiny freezing brilliant delicious suddenly starving furious huge huge delighted incredible

Tom and his friends were on an adventure in the forest when they ____ (1) fell into a hole. They found themselves in a dark underground tunnel. They walked for hours until they reached a ____ (2) door. They opened it and saw an ____ (3) sight - a city with ____ (4) houses, shops, and even a park! The buildings were made of a shiny material and everything was ____ (5).

They explored the city and met some friendly aliens who showed them around. Tom's friend Jack was ____ (6) because he wanted to go back home, but the others were ____ (7) to stay and learn more about this amazing place. The aliens took them to a restaurant where they had ____ (8) food they had never tasted before. They were so hungry that they ate everything on their plates.

After dinner, they went to a ____ (9) hall where they saw a ____ (10) show with acrobats and dancers. They were amazed by the performers' skills and the colorful costumes. When the show ended, they were ____ (11) and went to sleep in a cozy room with warm blankets. It was ____ (12) outside, but they felt safe and comfortable.

The next day, the aliens took them to a factory where they saw how the city was built. They learned that the aliens worked hard every day to make sure everything was perfect. Tom and his friends were grateful for the hospitality and kindness of the aliens. They knew they had to leave soon, but they promised to come back one day and visit their new friends in the underground alien city.

