

First name :

English test

Date :

Surname :

Form :

I Use the following verbs in the passive voice to fill in the blanks and make meaningful sentences.

pass / kidnap / bring / give / assassinate / organize / consider / treat / make / abolish / lynch / remember / force / segregate

1. Throughout the 17th and 18th centuries, some people from West Africa and to America. They to work as slaves on plantations.
2. By the end of the civil war, in 1865, slavery
3. In 1870, African Americans the right to vote thanks to the 15th Amendment which was a milestone for civil rights. However, it was not until the Voting Rights Act of 1965 by Congress that the majority of African Americans would be truly free to register and vote in large numbers.
4. During the Jim Crow era, African Americans as second class citizens. In the South public places and African Americans were Sometimes they could even
5. In the 1950's boycotts and marches to demand equal rights.
6. Although prominent civil rights leaders such as Martin Luther King or Malcolm X , segregation eventually illegal thanks to the Civil Rights act in 1964.
7. Barack Obama will always as the first African American president.

II Write the following linking phrases below their translation in French.

although / as / as a consequence / as long as / besides / contrary to /

if / that's why / in order to / also

si	afin de	c'est pourquoi	aussi	en plus de	contrairement à	tant que	en consequence	bien que	comme

III Use the phrases above to fill in the blanks:

1. Martin Luther King, Malcolm X didn't exclude the use of violence to move forward.
2. In the 30s many African Americans migrated to the north find a job.
3. some Whites considered a Black person had been disrespectful, he could be lynched.
4. In 1965, the Emancipation Proclamation was signed by A. Lincoln. the slaves became free.
5. In 1896, the Supreme Court of the United States ruled that State governments could separate people of different races the separate facilities were equal.
6. Malcolm X rejected King's message of nonviolence, he respected King as a "fellow-leader of our people".
7. she refused to give her seat to a white person, Rosa Parks was arrested.
8. being a 19th century author and an important advisor to American presidents, Booker T. Washington was a remarkable orator and an educator.
9. "Strange fruit" carries a passionate and timeless message against racism and violence. Time magazine selected Strange Fruit as its choice for the best song of the XXth century.