

UNIT 8: SENSES AND ADJECTIVES

touch	sniff	hearing aids	smell	deaf	guide dog	taste
visually- impaired	mute	perceive	sight	sign language	hearing loss	blind

1. She is blind and uses a to help her navigate.
2. The dog can out hidden treats in the room.
3. My friend is, she wears glasses to help her see better.
4. Some people different colors differently.
5. I love the of fresh baked bread in the morning.
6. The fabric was so soft to, I wanted to wrap myself in it.
7. Can you the difference between Coke and Pepsi?
8. The sunset was a beautiful to behold.
9. Mark is and communicates through sign language.
10. Linda used to be, but now she can speak after years of speech therapy.
11. Learning opens up a new way to communicate with the deaf community.
12. Jack suffers from due to prolonged exposure to loud noises.
13. help amplify sounds for those who are hard of hearing.
14. The man walked down the street with his guide cane.

bitter	bland	bright	loose	odourless	transparent	tasteless
deafening	chilly	tight	soft	damp	scented	smooth

1. The chicken I cooked was very....., it didn't have much flavor.
 2. The food at that restaurant was so, I couldn't eat it.
 3. Drinking coffee without sugar can be quite
 4. The sound of the fireworks was, it hurt my ears.
 5. It'soutside, make sure to bring a jacket.
 6. The towels in the bathroom were still....., they need to be dry.
 7. The sun was shiningand it was a beautiful day.
 8. The water in the glass was, you could see right through it.
 9. The pillow on my bed is very....., it's nice to sleep on.
 10. My new phone has a screen, it feels nice to touch.
 11. The air in the room was....., there was no smell at all.
 12. I lovecandles, they make my room smell nice.
 13. The dress I bought was too....., I needed a smaller size.
 14. The lid on the jar was too....., I couldn't open it by myself.
- coarse