The people below all want to choose a film to watch at the cinema. Decide which film would be the most suitable for the people below.

For each question, choose the correct answer.

6. Joe is mostly interested in films about true, historic events. His favorites are about well-known people, especially those whose lives were changed by their experiences. 6 -

A. The Long Journey This is the story of two young people who set off on a road trip. Filmed entirely in New Zealand, you'll see a lot of the wild countryside. Plenty of drama to enjoy plus there's a real message to this film.

7. Sandra's favorite films are usually love stories, but she doesn't mind if they have 7 - unhappy endings. The performances of the actors must be really good though!

8. Dimitri doesn't like films that are complicated and particularly enjoys watching films about life in the countryside. He's also interested in films that show the joys and difficulties of family life.

9. Danielle watches a lot of films but is especially keen on films set in the last century. She usually chooses to watch action films and really enjoys a surprising ending.

Sir Harry Rifken is a world-famous diamond thief in the 1930s who escapes from prison and, after a series of dramatic adventures, begins a new life in America. Director Sally Hartman has created a film that will keep you guessing until the final scene.

8 - C. Aim For The Stars This story is about the very first people to fly to the moon. It looks into the lives of some of the people involved in this important event, particularly Buzz Aldrin, the second man to step onto the moon's surface. This may be a true story, but there's enough drama in it to keep most people interested. The last part of the film is quite unexpected.

9 - D. Down On The Farm There are some exciting scenes where Winona Judd learns to race horses on her parent's farm, but the relationship between Winona and her strict father is the central topic of this unusual film. Although a lot of things happen

10. Maria likes films that make her think. In her opinion, the best ones are those which are filmed in a beautiful location. It's also important that the film has an exciting story.

in this film, it's so well written that the story is always easy to understand.

E. The Island This is a romantic film partly filmed on a beautiful Pacific island. What's special about this film is the quality of the acting. The audience really see the couple's happiness when they are together and feels the sadness of the conclusion.
