

NAME:
CLASS:
DATE:

Elements of Literature Written Test

A- Multiple Choice

1- The sequence of events in a story is:

- A. the main idea
- B. the plot
- C. the summary

2- The story's time and place is:

- A. the tone
- B. the plot
- C. the setting

3- An individual in a literary work is called

- A. character
- B. narrator
- C. plot

4- What is the climax of a story?

- A. The point of highest tension or drama in the story
- B. The resolution of the story
- C. The beginning of the story

5- In this element of the plot the author introduces the characters and setting.

- A. Resolution
- B. Exposition
- C. Rising Action

B- Sensory Images: Decide to which type of sensory image these phrases belong to: sight, smell, touch, sound, taste.

1. Veronica was dressed to impress. The scanty scarlet lace dress clung to every curve. _____
2. As she walked through the wintery woods, her teeth chattered and the leaves crunched under her feet. _____
3. The sweet fragrance of honeysuckle always reminded Jenny of her mother's perfume. _____
4. My mouth nearly watered as I stared at the chocolate mousse and imagined the sweet, creamy dessert rolling on my tongue. _____
5. A gust of cold air blew over her, causing her body to shiver. She pulled the soft blanket up to her chin, so then she was warm and cozy. _____

C- Literary Genres: Read carefully the following excerpts and decide to which literary genre they belong: horror- science fiction- historic information- recipe- fantasy- geographic information- love story- biography. (There are three options you don't need.)

1. 'Once upon a time, in a land far, far away, there was a young girl named Lyra. She lived in a small village at the edge of a dense forest, where tales of magical creatures and enchanted forests were whispered around campfires. One day, while playing in the woods, Lyra stumbled upon a hidden path that led her to a clearing filled with sparkling crystals and shimmering plants. As she reached out to touch one of the crystals, she felt a jolt of energy shoot through her body, and suddenly she was surrounded by a group of friendly forest creatures who invited her to join them on an adventure through the enchanted forest.' _____
2. 'On a dark and stormy night, a group of friends decided to explore the abandoned house at the edge of town. As they made their way through the dusty rooms, they heard strange noises coming from the basement. One by one, they descended the creaky stairs, only to find that they were not alone. Something sinister was lurking in the shadows, and it was hungry for their souls.' _____
3. 'Emma was a space explorer on a mission to a distant planet. As she landed her spacecraft on the planet's surface, she noticed something strange - the sky was green! Emma stepped out of her spacecraft and looked around. The plants were blue, and the animals were pink. She realized she had landed on a planet with completely different colors than her own. As she explored further, she encountered a group of friendly aliens who communicated through music.' _____
4. 'The Industrial Revolution was a period of major economic and social change that occurred during the 18th and 19th centuries in Europe and North America. It marked a shift from manual labor to machine-based manufacturing and led to advances in transportation, communication, and industry. The Industrial Revolution began in Britain in the late 1700s and spread to other parts of Europe and the United States over the next century.' _____

5. 'Arthur Conan Doyle (1859-1930) was a British author and physician, best known for his creation of the fictional detective Sherlock Holmes. Born in Scotland, Conan Doyle studied medicine at the University of Edinburgh before moving to London to set up his medical practice. However, his true passion lay in writing and he published his first Sherlock Holmes story, "A Study in Scarlet," in 1887. _____