Just like the morning, He always shows (He always shows)

It may be midnight or midday _____ enough
He's never early, never late
He gon' stand by what He _____ claimed
I lived _____ life to say (Say, say, say) early

Help is on the way
Round in the corner
Help is on the way
Coming for ya
Help is on the way
Yea-ee-ayy
I lived enough life to say
Help is on the way

(Mm-mm, mm-mm)
Well, I've seen my share of _____ promise,
But the Lord ain't failed me _____ sleeves
So I'm holding on to the _____, y'all
That He's rolling up His _____ again troubles

Said, I seen my share of troubles (Rolling up, rolling up)

But the Lord ain't failed me yet (Rolling up, rolling up)
We'll keep holdin' on to the promise, y'all (Rolling up, rolling up)
That He's rolling up His sleeves again
Rolling up, rolling up (Don't ya know it?)
Rolling up His sleeves again (I can see Him rollin')
Rolling up, rolling up (Help is coming)
Rolling up His sleeves again

Yeah, it may be midnight or mid-day (Yeah-eah)
He's never early, no, never late (Yeah-eah)
He gon' stand by what He claimed (Yeah-eah)
I lived enough life to say (Say, say, say)

It may be midnight or mid-day (Yeah-eah)
He's never early, no, He's never late (Yeah-eah)
He gon' stand by what He claimed (Yeah-eah)
I lived enough life to say (Say, say, say)

Help is on the way
Help is on the way
Roundin' the corner
Help is on the way

I was homeless for three years and the time I turned to my lord and savior help came on its way. Now I have my own place and my family back.

Very special song! I'm an amputee and recently broke my arm pretty bad, but "the Lord ain't failed me yet" and we know he won't.

He's never early, He's never late. Help is on the way...

I needed to hear that. Been in the desert for a long time now...passively suicidal for several years. Thank you, Toby, for using your gift to help others. You are truly a blessing. 💖

When a man can sing this after suffering the hardest pain in life, the loss of a child, hear him!

This song saved my life after a brain injury. I play this daily, multiple times a day! You nailed it! Thank you Toby! God bless you ❤️
