Dear Steve, Thank you _____ your email. I want to tell you _____ some things that we can do while you are in London. I love _____ museums. There _____ so many things to see there! The Natural History Museum is my favourite. It has a massive dinosaur skeleton and a baby dinosaur that looks like it's sleeping. At the Science Museum there are hands on exhibits with games that you can _____ There are also interesting puzzles you need to _____ to win points. Is that something you would like _____ do? I _____ so! My big sister will go _____ us, so we can take the tube with no adults! My family is super excited to meet you. _____ are all very curious. See you soon! Anna

F. Now write an answer email from Steve to Anna. (50-60 words)

How does he feel about visiting London? Does he like museums or does he prefer other activities? How does he feel about the exhibits with games? Does he like solving puzzles to win points? Would he like to meet Anna's sister? Does he have his own ideas of activities he would like to do?
