

Do you know the of Britain and the group of countries THAT/WHICH were colonies of the British Empire?

What you call a large sea animal which/ that has two tusks (= long, pointed teeth that come out of the mouth) ?

What is the name the tree that/which grows in Canada and that/which has colourful leaves in the autumn and that produces a substance like sugar?

Can you of a vehicle which/that is used for travelling on snow ?

..... is the name of the animal with brown fur, a long, flat tail, and sharp teeth which/that builds dams (= walls made of pieces of wood) across rivers ?

What the of a group of people who live in the cold, northern areas of Canada, or a member of this group ?

Do you a word which/that is a synonym for "Inuit"?

How do call a person who /that cuts down trees in a forest ?

On a appris à poser des questions type devinettes que l'on pourrait poser à un guide, dans un contrôle ou encore dans un quiz .

Pour poser ce type de question :

1.on commence par une formule ,par exemple.....
ou

2.ensuite on cite la catégorie à laquelle appartient la réponse

ex := une personne= quelqu'un
.....= des gens=un explorateur= quelque chose
.....=un endroit= un territoire=un véhicule
.....= un produit= un objet=un vêtement
.....= an évènement.....= une fête=un plat

3. on met un pronom relatif ou THAT si l'antécédent est un objet, une chose
.....ou THAT si l'antécédent est une ou plusieurs personnes
.....ou THAT si l'antécédent est un lieu

4.on apporte des précisions qui vont aider l'autre à comprendre de quoi il s'agit.

Utilise les mots des questions pour rédiger les définitions des mots ci-dessous :

Ex : The Commonwealth is Britain and the group of countries that / which were colonies of the British Empire.

A walrus is a large sea WHICH/THAT has two .

A maple tree is a tree that/which grows in Canada and that/which has colourful in the autumn and that produces a like sugar.

A snowmobile is a which/that is used for on snow .

A Quebecker is lives in .

A buffalo is a wild looks like a large (it has 2 horns)

A is a large, strong, wild animal has thick fur.

is the large the Inuits live in the North of Canada.

An is a circular house the Inuit people make with blocks of .

Hudson Bay is a very large body of water is situated in northeastern Canada.

Whales are very mammals live in the sea and have a hole at the top of their to breathe.

A is an area of a country is protected by the government because of its natural beauty or because it has a special history is the French discovered Canada in 1534.

A scenery is a general appearance of the natural environment looks beautiful.

A tourist is a everybody wants to go (the Niagara Falls for example)

Igloofest is a music people can listen to electro music.

Igloofest a music people wear their .

Igloofest is a takes place in Montreal in winter precisely in January.

Poutine is a Canadian consists of chips, and sauce.