NOUNS AND VERBS

Stress and Intonation

INSTRUCTIONS:

Read the sentences and after listen the audios, then match each sentence with their appropriate pronuncuation.

- INcrease "There's been an increase in the number of students."
- inCREASE "Numbers are increasing."
- IMport "This is a cheap import."
- imPORT "They import their oil from the UK."
- EXport "Oil is one of their biggest exports.
- exPORT "We need to export more."
- DIScount "Is there a discount on this?"
- disCOUNT "They discounted the theories."

LIVEWORKSHEETS

- CONflict “They’re reporting armed conflict in the area.”
- conFLICT “His opinion conflicted with hers.”
- CONtest “She entered a beauty contest.””
- conTEST “They contested the results.”
- UPdate “We’ve got some updates for you.”
- upDATE “We’re updating our files.”
- UPgrade “They got an upgrade on the flight.”
- upGRADE “It’s time to upgrade our computer.”
- REject “This is one of the rejects from the factory.”
- reJECT “He rejected her advice.”
- UPset “The victory was an upset in the championships.”
- upSET “He upset her with his cruel remarks.”

LIVEWORKSHEETS