

I say I do

by Brhyte Owoo

I say I do.
Not because you are perfect,
But I love you with all your imperfections.

I say I do.
Not because I want to change you,
But I love you just the way you are.

I say I do.
Not because of what you have,
But the dreams and potentials laid buried within you.

I say I do.
Not for my wants of today,
But for the future that lays bright as a crown of gold upon your head.

Today before the heavens, witnessed by all
And graced by the love of our bosoms
I say I do

Not for my wants or needs,
But for the hope and brightness of the stars of our children.

I say I do.
Till mortal death, do we part.
I love you.
