

a) Complete with something, someone (somebody) or somewhere.

I _____ gave me this book. It is amazing.	We want to go _____ hot this summer.	I think there is _____ at the door.	I feel hungry. I need to eat _____.

b) Complete with nothing, no one (nobody) or nowhere.

There is _____ to eat. The fridge is empty.	I called Peter last night but _____ answered.	The dog has _____ to live, we should adopt him.	I have _____ to do. I have finished homework.

c) Complete with anything, anyone (anybody) or anywhere.

I was sick so I didn't go _____ this weekend.	He read the book but he didn't understand _____.	I can't see _____ in the classroom that has the answer.	Is there _____ to eat? I'm very hungry.

d) Complete with everything, everyone (everybody) or everywhere.

I bought _____ we need to make a cake.	The movie was good. _____ liked it!	I threw some glitter on the floor and now it's _____.	She packed _____ in her backpack.